The Court made the following :

ORAL ORDER:

When the matter is taken up for hearing, it is represented by the learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner has taken away the bundle in the year 1997 and she has no instructions in the matter. No vakalat is filed by any other counsel so far. Even today, none appeared for the petitioner in spite of printing the matter under the caption 'for dismissal'. Therefore, it seems that the petitioner is not interested in prosecuting the case.

Hence, the writ petition is dismissed for non-prosecution. NO costs.
